Declines to Serve with Bowen.

NEW YORK, May 18.—The following letter explains itself

To Editor of the Tribune—SIR In your report of the election of officers of the Congregational Union in your paper of Friday last, it was stated that the Rev. Dr George B Bacon declined re-election as trustee of said society because of his objection to Henry C. Bowen as a member of the board, and that I was chosen in his place I was not present at that meeting nor did I know of my own election until I saw the report in the Tribune. Allow me to say, therefore that I most heartily sympathize with the action of my friend Dr Bacon For the same reasons that led him to decline a re-election, I have declined to become his successor and I claim the privilege of this statement, because one less public might lead some to think that Dr Bacon stands alone. I believe our churches are with him At least it cannot be doubted that they would prefer to have their contributions disposed by men of unquestioned Christian character

Origin of the Recent War Rumors.

LONDON May 18 —The Pall Mall Gazette finds the origin of the recent war rumors in the following circumstances The Versailles assembly just before adjourning for its last recess passed a bill which had been for some time under discussion concerning Cadres of the French army Later Prince Bismarck addressed a circular dispatch to the diplomatic representatives of Germany abroad complaining of the adoption of this measure which was described as calculated to endanger the peace of Europe. The contents of the dispatch were according to instructions orally communicated by German representatives to the governments to which they are respectively accredited The existence of this dispatch was divulged and gave rise to reports which have lately caused so much alarm throughout Europe

The French Assembly

PARIS May 18 —In the assembly to-day Minister Dufaure submitted a bill regulating relations between public powers It provides that the senate and chamber of deputies shall meet annually in January and sit at least five months in the year The president of the republic may communicate with the chamber by message The chambers are obliged to reconsider any decision if the president makes a request to that effect The president and ministers can be impeached only by the chamber of deputies and must be tried by the senate

M Dufaure also introduced a bill relative to the organization of the senate It provides that elections for senators shall be ordered by decree which must be issued six months before the day appointed for the holding thereof

A motion was made by the minister that the bills be referred to committee of thirty

The Left opposed the motion and urged that the bills be referred to the senatorial committee

M Dufaure's motion was defeated whereupon M Bath announced that the committee of thirty resigned their functions

M Laboulaye member of the committee of thirty objected that M Bath had no right to tender the resignation of the entire committee

Duc Dandiffret Pasquier president of the assembly declared that the resignation of the committee was unprecedented The committee should first meet and consider the subject Those of its members who propose to resign should notify the presiding officer of the assembly of their intention M Dufaure informed the house that the defeat of his motion would not be considered a Cabinet question

The Religious Question.

BERLIN May 18 —The Roman Catholic bishops of Prussia who addressed a petition to the Emperor and received a reply last month from the Ministers of State have made rejoinder that to reject the decision of the Vatican Council would be equivalent to the abandonment of Catholicism and that they are convinced that the Holy See would never be unwilling to act in conformity with all proper decisions of the State government

VIRGINIA May 18 —A number of persons in this city are about to take a flying trip to Meadow Lake to see how the land lies

The experiment of using Eldorado Canyon coal for fuel at the mills has been found to be successful Wherever used it is found to be better and cheaper than wood and several mines in lower Gold Hill are adopting it for fuel and is now consumed

The flags at Savage and Belcher mines were at half mast yesterday out of respect to the memory of Mrs Sharon

FARMING ITEMS

The fair grounds and race track at Walla Walla are being greatly improved

The weather at Walla Walla so far this spring has been exceedingly propitious and all growing crops give promise of an abundant yield

The Tribune says sheep shearing has commenced in Umatilla county but has not been prosecuted with much vigor owing to the cold weather

A Montana paper says that most of the wheat sown in that Territory last fall was frozen out by the extreme cold of the winter It is doubtful if the yield will be equal to the seed sown

The Walla Walla Statesman says James Monaghan Esq is down from Colville He has no special news to report Stock owners suffered heavily during the winter and estimates their loss at about one half their bands

The Baker City Democrat says "The grass in our valleys and on the foothills never looked better for a good crop of hay at this season of the year than now The late rains are also bringing the farmers crops on very fast

The traditional grasshopper is putting in his annual appearance around the base of the Blue mountains He is small yet but very lively and if no outward event happens to him he will make the grass and other vegetation suffer in his immediate neighborhood

A gentleman who has just returned from the Snake river country says that the present condition of the stock up there would hardly indicate that they have just passed through a hard winter He says that the hills and plains are covered with fine grass knee high and that the cattle are looking well and getting fat —those that are not already so

The Sentinel says We don't remember having ever seen a spring during a residence of twelve years in Grande Round valley that was more favorable for splendid crops than that which we are now enjoying The past winter was remarkable for an immense fall of snow, which will keep the small streams leading from the mountains well supplied with water until late in the season while the unusual rainfall this spring has completely saturated the ground and will keep it damp until late in the fall even if a drouth was to set in now, of which we at present have no indications The prospects for a very heavy hay crop were never better

The body of an old settler named Tom Cartwright was found on the banks of the Columbia river above Wallula a few days since under circumstances that indicated drowning He had been missing for a couple of weeks and his body when found had every appearance of having been in the water a long time The deceased had lived near the mouth of the Yakima river for several years and had been on this side for the purpose of getting supplies On his way he lost a package of tobacco and returned for the purpose of finding the lost package After that time nothing was known of him until his body was found as above described His clothes were found on the bank of the river, and it is supposed that he went in for the purpose of bathing His money was found all safe and nothing to indicate foul play Deceased was an old bachelor who lived entirely by himself but being of a kindly disposition was greatly esteemed by his neighbors

THE TERRITORIES

A Walla Walla [illegible] has [illegible] up his traps and fled the [illegible] having [illegible] creditors

White, blue and wine colored topaz—precious and plentiful—has been found west of Sevier Lake Utah

The Walla Walla and Wallula railroad was expected to be finished to the Touchet by Tuesday of this week

The sheriff of Walla Walla county has collected $[illegible]82 21 taxes for 1874 and returns $6,785 48 as delinquent

A great many immigrants are finding their way to Puget Sound and all are well satisfied with the country over there

Freighting from Walla Walla to the northern mines has begun Two teams with 6 500 pounds merchandise left last week

There is a public feeling in the city says the Salt Lake Tribune which is not healthy for the scoundrels who are infesting it and committing all the crimes in the calendar Lynching is now the talk

An Idaho paper thinks the mines of that Territory will turn out more bullion this year than for many years before The stocks of some of these mines have materially improved in the San Francisco market

A large ledge of mica has been discovered within a short distance of Salt Lake City Its value can only be determined by the uses to which it can be placed The ledge is said to be large enough to supply the world

Four car loads of damaged oysters destined for the Pacific are lying along the Union Pacific Here's a fine chance for the Utah fish commissioners to obtain a stock to plant in Great Salt Lake for the Mormon bishops to steal They hanker after oysters!

From Yakima we hear that things are about as usual that the miners on the Swauk have just had their faith in the mines revived by the discovery of a nugget worth about $105 Still there has no good paying mines been discovered yet

A week ago last Saturday morning Mr John Sang residing on Yellow Hawk, three miles east of Walla Walla met with an accident which resulted in his death He started out with the intention of pulling down a rude structure which had been used as a chicken house and at noon, as he did not return for dinner his wife went out to see what was the matter when she found him lying on the ground dead The building had fallen upon him and broken his spine

Gen Wheaton in his speech at an entertainment given in his honor, spoke strongly in favor of Walla Walla as a military post and stated that the troops were subsisted there at less cost than any other station in the country The regular allowance for subsisting a soldier is 30 cents a day At Fort Walla Walla for the last year the average cost for subsisting the soldiers was at the rate of 13 cents each per day or 17 cents less than the regular allowance The lowest figure at any other post in the United States for a corresponding period was 20 cents a head or full one-half more than at this post

Mr James Seavey, of Port Townsend has been appointed clerk of the court for the third judicial district of Washington Territory and Mr Ayer of Walla Walla clerk of the first judicial district Heretofore there has been a clerk allowed at each of the places of holding court, but hereafter there will be one only in each district The office is now well worth having In the first district the pay and fees will probably exceed $2 000 per annum Mr Seavy has been postmaster of Port Townsend and clerk of the court there for the past ten years His new appointment relieves from duty Mr L B Andrews of Seattle and Julius Dickens of Steilacoom

The Salt Lake Tribune says "Some gentlemen coming from Beaver not long since overtook a Scandinavian who was on foot carrying a kit of carpenter's tools a carpet-bag and a small sack of flour The mud was deep and the walking was extremely bad, and the gentlemen, being in a large double wagon with plenty of spare room invited the walkist to throw in his load and ride with them He thanked them saying he had only forty miles more to go The gentlemen then insisted upon his getting into the wagon but their kind invitation was promptly declined and in addition they received this explanation Chentlemens, I vants to bunish dis tam fool Scandinavian whose pen town vorkener on der St Yorg Demples an I makes him valken all der vay home! No chentlemens dis tam fools have got to valken home dank you, chentlemens

The Walla Walla Union hears of a Crab creek man who was in the stable and while he was sucking an egg a big rattlesnake reached his head over the manger and struck at the man The fellow ran to the house and had a poultice applied to his ear as there was blood discovered on that ornamental appendage His wife then dosed him heavily with wild parsnip to counteract the poison of the snake He soon became insensible but came to after awhile and thanked his stars that there was plenty of wild parsnip on Crab creek But the joke came in when finally he remembered that he had hurt his ear before going near the snake and it seems the snake had never touched him The wild parsnip came much nearer killing him than the snake did His neighbors say that between the snake and the antidote they think him pretty well broke of sucking eggs

DIKING IN HOLLAND

In Dutch drainage-work the dike is a very important element These vary of course, according to the circumstances under which they are required On the North Sea coast where they are built to withstand tides rising ten feet beyond their average and lashed by storms they constitute a work of stupendous magnitude and cost In the case of a polder of a few acres they may be the work of a single man Occasionally in their construction serious engineering difficulties are presented especially is this the case where the dike is to be constructed in the water Here the two sides of the foundation, which must reach from the solid earth to the surface of the water, are made by sinking great rafts of willow osiers often from 100 to 150 yards square, strongly secured together and making a compact mass These are floated over the place they are intended to occupy where they are guided by poles sunk in the bottom and are loaded with stones or with earth until they sink Upon this first a second and smaller one and often a third and even a fourth always decreasing in size are placed in turn The space between the two walls is filled with solid earth and on the top of this secure foundation the dike is built If the dike is to remain exposed to moving water it must be further protected by jetties or by mason work or by wattles placed upon its slope or by rows of piles basket-work of straw or rushes or sometimes by brick walls

A Dakota judge has decided that under the Territorial laws an Indian cannot be convicted of murdering one of his own kind The question arose in a recent prosecution of two Santees for the murder of a Ponca Indian The murderers were acquitted under the decision and were at liberty to depart but fearing that prowling Poncas who were not satisfied with the decision might kill them they were remanded to jail for protection

A snake fight was advertised at [illegible] and the gathering of spectators was very large A large rattlesnake and an adder were put into the arena together but neither would attack the other Then a young alligator and the snake were tried and an encounter immediately began The alligator was bitten four times but he finally crushed the snake to death between his jaws and subsequently died himself of the reptile's poison

ANNUAL ADDRESS

Of Henry G. Struve M W Grand Master of the R W Grand Lodge of Oregon at the 20th Annual Communication, begun and held at Portland, Oregon on the 18th day of May, 1875

Brothers [illegible] to exercise the highly important legislative and judicial functions devolving upon the Grand Lodge of this jurisdiction You have assembled here under circumstances which demand your heartfelt thankfulness to the great Almighty for His goodness and mercy to us and our order during the past year We are not called upon to mourn the loss of a single member of our Grand Lodge household during the past year The kind hand of Providence has again permitted this friendly and fraternal reunion of so many of the old veterans of our order and we have reason to rejoice that so much prosperity and so many blessings have attended the progress of our order since our last session

THE STATE OF THE ORDER

Although the past year has been marked as a season of depression in business and prostration of financial interests throughout the whole jurisdiction I am happy to be enabled to state that this fact does not seem to have checked and retarded the growth and increase of our order The ratio of the net increase in membership has been even greater than during the preceding year the same being over 10 per cent on the total membership Five additional lodges have been organized under dispensations granted by the Grand Master and are now petitioning for a charter at your hands From nearly all parts of the jurisdiction the glad tidings of substantial prosperity are sent to me New halls have been erected cemeteries established and other evidences of success abound on every hand The total number of contributing members on the 1st day of January last were two thousand five hundred and ninety, and I am justified in stating that at present there are not less than 2 800 Odd Fellows in good standing in the jurisdiction The aggregate sum paid by lodges for relief during the past year was $1,461 47 of which the sum of $8[illegible] was paid for the relief of sick brothers [illegible] for the relief of widowed families and the balance for burying the dead and educating the orphans The number of initiations during the past year were three hundred and thirty three of which one hundred and twenty two were admitted by card and twenty suspended members were reinstated For further statistical details I respectfully refer you to the report of the R W grand secretary which will be submitted to you and which contains much interesting and valuable information

NEW LODGES

On the 5th day of August 1874 a dispensation was granted during my temporary absence from the jurisdiction by J M Gatch acting Grand Master for the institution of a new lodge at Hillsboro Washington county Oregon to be known as Montezuma Lodge No 50, with six charter members This lodge was instituted by H O Hyde special deputy on the 16th day of September 1874 and has now a membership of 13 members It started under the most favorable auspices and gives promise of a prosperous future Hence I recommend a charter for this lodge

On the [illegible] day of January 1875 I granted a dispensation to [illegible] persons being scarlet degree members of Calapooia Lodge No [illegible] and their wives of Brownsville Oregon to form a Rebekah degree lodge at said place to be hailed as Rachel Rebekah Degree Lodge No 9 Bro D M Thompson P G and D D G M of district No 3 instituted said lodge on the 9th day of January 1875 and inasmuch as said lodge is in a flourishing condition I recommend the granting of a charter for the same.

On the 24th of March 1875 I issued a dispensation for a new lodge at Marshfield, Coos county Oregon to be hailed as Sunset Lodge No 51 with 11 charter members The same was instituted by Bro Jay Tuttle the special deputy on the 22d day of April 1875 There is every reason to believe that this lodge is placed upon a permanent basis, and I therefore recommend a charter for the same

A new lodge under the name of Cove Lodge No 52 located in Union county was authorized to be instituted by dispensation from this office dated March 9 187[illegible] This lodge with nine charter members was instituted on April 25 1875 by Bro W J Snodgrass, Gr Rep and special deputy and commences its existence under most favorable auspices A charter is recommended

On the 2d day of April 1875 I granted a dispensation for the institution of a new lodge at Coquille City to be known and hailed as Coquille Lodge No 53 with eight charter members The same was instituted by Bro Jay Tuttle special deputy on May 6th and promises to be a valuable addition to our order I recommend a charter for the same

I have also received the necessary papers authorizing the institution of two new lodges in Washington Territory which will probably be instituted during the next month

FINANCES

I am justified in saying that the finances of the Grand Lodge during the last fiscal year have been prudently and economically managed The grand treasurer's report will show the expenditures and disbursements in detail All the debts of the Grand Lodge up to the present date have been audited and paid and a balance of $992 [illegible] is reported in the treasury Last year the balance on hand was only $31 47 although the receipts during that year nearly equaled those of the present year The levy of the same assessment for the ensuing year upon the subordinate lodges will enable the Grand Lodge to become financially independent without resorting to annual loans provided economy and prudence is exercised in the disbursement of the Grand Lodge funds

DECISIONS

During the past year I have made among others the following decisions

1st Question Can the officers of several lodges located in different towns, be installed jointly at the same time and place.

Answer No the installation of officers is a part of the work of the lodge and the lodge must perform its work in the place designated in its charter as its [illegible] habitation If a lodge has the power to determine that its officers shall be installed one mile from the place where it is located it would have the same right to determine that the installation should take place ten or fifty miles or more distant.

2d Question Is it proper for a person not an Odd Fellow to appear before the committee of five on charges as attorney for either party concerned?

Answer No the relations of attorney and party are of such a confidential and intimate nature that it necessarily involves the disclosure of matters pertaining to the business of the lodge which none but members should know

3d Question Is it proper for a person not an Odd Fellow to appear before the lodge as an attorney for either party concerned in the trial?

Answer In the negative No person not an Odd Fellow has a right to appear before the lodge while in session in any capacity whatever

4th Question Has a lodge a right to reconsider a ballot on rejection of an application for initiation any time previous to the expiration of six months because members had inadvertently been permitted to vote who were not entitled to vote under the by laws when the candidate had been rejected the grand secretary notified and his name placed on the black book

Answer A legal ballot cannot be reconsidered under the circumstances above mentioned But when brothers vote who are disqualified to vote upon such application under the by laws the ballot may be declared illegal and void by a majority of the lodge (1871 journal Gr Lodge U S p 193 [illegible]) When this illegality is ascertained and declared it places all parties as if no ballot had taken place and thereupon the ballot must be spread [illegible] compliance with the constitution of subordinates Only one ballot and one reconsideration can be granted to a candidate but the proceeding above indicated cannot be deemed a reconsideration because it is not predicated upon a legal ballot A ballot participated in by disqualified persons is void ab initio and when so declared the proposition of the candidate report of the committee and the action of the lodge receiving such report and ordering a ballot is again before the lodge to be disposed of by a legal ballot in which none but duly qualified brothers should participate If by reason of such void ballot a person's name is wrongfully placed upon the black book, the lodge owes it to itself to promptly cause the erasure of that name

5th [illegible] A sister of the Rebekah degree cannot act as V G in a subordinate lodge when opened in that degree

6th Question—Is a lodge which has adopted the plan of the W & O R A bound to pay assessments for brothers who are six months in arrears and not entitled to sick benefits according to its by laws?

Answer—In the affirmative Until a suspension or expulsion take place the lodge must continue to pay such assessments

I have made a number of other decisions but inasmuch as they were simply declaratory of ordinary provisions of law contained in the digest and journal I have deemed it not necessary to enumerate [illegible] Grand Master's record book [illegible]

[illegible] FOR AID

On the 5th day of February last I issued a proclamation authorizing the R W Grand Lodge of Nebraska to request contributions from all the subordinate lodges of this jurisdiction to keep many of our brethren and their families in that State from suffering and starvation owing to the fearful drought and devastation caused by the visitations of the grasshoppers and other insects which scourged that and other States and Territories of the Union I have no official data to ascertain how much was contributed in this behalf but from unofficial sources I am enabled to state that the response to my proclamation was quite liberal and generous

Several applications to me for authority to request contributions in this jurisdiction to help subordinate lodges on the eastern seaboard which had suffered by fire and otherwise have been refused by me for reasons not now necessary to state The correspondence herewith submitted will show all the facts in the case I respectfully ask the approval of the Grand Lodge of my action herein

HOME LODGE NO 34

Circumstances seemed to render necessary the surrender of the charter of Home Lodge No 34 located at Monroe Benton county Oregon which was accordingly done on the 20th day of July 1874 I appointed Bro J M Bacon grand secretary as special deputy to [illegible] and to receive the charter and all effects of said lodge which [illegible] he successfully accomplished As said lodge [illegible] all the [illegible] [illegible] to [illegible] him This is the only black mark in this jurisdiction

REBEKAH DEGREE LODGES

I herewith submit an application for a dispensation to constitute a Rebekah degree lodge at Pendleton Umatilla county Oregon signed by twenty one applicants Inasmuch as the same was received by me just prior to the present session I took no action but refer the application to you

I regret that I am not in a position to furnish you such information concerning the condition of the Rebekah degree lodges Only three out of nine have made their report to the grand secretary These were from Oregon City Jacksonville and Canyon City Our respected sisters are undoubtedly accomplishing much good in their respective localities but they should let others know the history of their progress and success so that they can profit by and emulate their example

AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION OF SUBORDINATES

I recommend an amendment to section 1 article III constitution of subordinates so the same may be conformable to the decision of the Grand Lodge of the United States made at its last session (see journal pages [illegible]) which places a construction upon the well known rule that no more than one ballot and one reconsideration can be granted to a candidate for membership I am aware that this Grand Lodge at its session of 1870 (see journal page [illegible]) has held that although section 1 article III may indicate that several ballots can take place yet that no ballot is actually had until the result is declared by the N G that the candidate is elected or rejected But this seems to be a clear and illogical evasion of the doctrine as expounded by the Grand Lodge of the United States This question comes up to me for decision from Valley Lodge No 42 at Independence and not wishing to take the responsibility of declaring any part of the organic law to be unconstitutional I reserved the decision and submit the matter for your action

CHARTERS

All charters that were authorized at the last session of the Grand Lodge were duly issued to the respective lodges. In compliance with former legislation on the subject new charters were also issued and delivered to all the lodges in the jurisdiction in lieu of the old charters which were ordered to be cancelled In this connection it becomes my duty to report to you the insubordination of Chemeketa Lodge which according to the report of the D D G M of the district embracing that lodge refused to accept the new charter in place of the former one. This report only reached me a short time since hence I had not sufficient time to investigate the matter and deal with the lodge I recommend such action as will have a tendency to cause the authority of this Grand Lodge to be properly respected

REPORTS OF D D GRAND MASTERS

I herewith submit the annual reports made to me by the various district deputies Those from districts Nos 4, 7 10 12 17, 14 and 20 have made no report and I have cancelled their commissions to be issued as required by law Some of these contain valuable information and useful suggestions But about one-half of these reports are very meager, which fact I ascribe more to the want of a law defining fully and specifically what such reports should contain than any want of ability or disposition on the part of the deputies to comply with the law Since under the present regulation the Grand Master cannot in person visit all the lodges many of his active field duties necessarily devolve upon his deputies To enable this Grand Lodge to legislate intelligently to supply the wants of the jurisdiction its officers should be thoroughly and reliably informed as to the exact condition of the various subordinates and such information can be best contributed by the district deputies I therefore recommend that some committee be charged with the labor of preparing the form of an annual report for the district deputies to consist of a variety of questions, which must necessarily elicit from the deputy such answers, in detail as will give all the statistical data and other information required by the Grand Lodge. These blanks should be printed and be forwarded to the deputies in due season by the grand secretary

OFFICIAL VISITATIONS

My opportunities to visit lodges have been necessarily restricted during the past year I have however been enabled to meet with lodges in Portland Oregon City Salem Roseburg Myrtle Creek, Canyonville Olympia and Seattle to the members of which I exemplified the unwritten work. I found all of these lodges in good working condition and notably so in Southern Oregon, where a very marked revival has taken place during the past year A great deal of new material has been added taken from the most respectable and influential elements in the community A bright and prosperous future may be safely predicted for these lodges. I found a few lodges with a large membership, all of which paid their dues with punctuality and discharged all their outward obligations as Odd Fellows but the faces of many members were but rarely seen in the lodge room This want of frequent attendance has a discouraging tendency upon the other members, and wherever I met lukewarmness in the work the cause could nearly always be traced to slim lodge meetings a consequent lack of interest and general inefficiency in the work of the order

WASHINGTON AND IDAHO.

No change in the relations between this Grand Lodge and the lodges in these Territories have taken place during the past year Greatly owing to the kind and fostering care which has ever been extended by this Grand Lodge, the order in these Territories has had a steady and prosperous growth, and in Washington at least, sufficient strength will before long be developed to maintain if necessary or desirable a separate Grand Lodge organization

ANNIVERSARY

On the 20th day of February last I issued a proclamation enjoining the observance of the 56th anniversary of our order and also a general dispensation authorizing lodges to appear publicly in the regalia and jewels of the order on that day I am glad to be able to state that the occasion was properly celebrated in all parts of the jurisdiction by processions orations friendly reunions and other festivities of an appropriate character In Hillsboro Canyonville and some other localities the observances were of a very imposing nature and exhibited in a very favorable light to the outside world the love and attachment of the brethren toward the principles of our order

WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' RELIEF ASSOCIATION

This organization which was created by the Grand Lodge at its last session and is conducted and managed under its auspices, has been in successful operation during the past year Twenty two subordinate lodges aggregating a membership of 867 have formally adopted the plan submitted by the Grand Lodge The other lodges have rejected the same but 1[illegible]0 individual members of these lodges have opened a personal account with the grand secretary and are now contributing members of the association The total number of members at the present time being 1007 It insures the sum of $518 0 to the widow or person designated as the beneficiary in the case of the death of a member But four members have died and the sums respectively paid were $387 50 $448 $506 50 and $518 50 on each assessment The principle of this organization contains the crude germ of a system which by the aid of experience can undoubtedly be developed into a successful plan of mutual insurance Many lodges are as yet undecided concerning it, and are waiting to see the practical results of its operation The principal objection urged by many seems to be that the young man of 21 whose lease of life may be fairly presumed to continue for a long period is liable at his age to far greater prospective burdens than those imposed upon the man of 60 who may reasonably expect to reap the same benefit from the plan with a largely disproportionate outlay of expense But not being versed in the science taught by mortuary statistics I leave the whole matter to your wisdom with this single recommendation namely that some law be enacted which will prevent any lodge from adopting the plan of the association or any individual member from becoming a member when the danger of death is imminent or likely to occur and when either lodge or member becomes a subscriber for the single purpose of securing the payment of the benefit In this connection I would also state that a very large amount of additional labor is entailed upon the grand secretary by reason of this association and if the financial condition of the Grand Lodge will permit I would recommend that the salary of that officer be raised from $400 to $600 per annum

APPOINTMENTS

The following appointments have been made by me during the past year June 15th 1874 James H [illegible] D D G M in Idaho for District No 8 June 1874 [illegible] F Ensign D D G M in Idaho for District No 9 June [illegible] 1874 James Nettle D D G M for District No [illegible] June [illegible] 1874 C W Tower D D G M for District No 17 June 9 1874 D E Thomas D D G M for District No 16 November 28 1874 James A Smith D D G M for District [illegible] vice C W [illegible] removed February 1 1875 Jay Tuttle D D G M for District No 20 vice J C Wing

DISPENSATIONS

At various times during the past year I have granted numerous applications for dispensations to lodges to hold public installations and celebrations and festivities of a various nature They are stated in detail in the record of the Grand Master herewith submitted to which I refer for further particulars

APPORTIONMENT

I have also taken the liberty in a few instances to reapportion some of the districts after duly consulting some of the P Gs and members interested The changes have also been recorded and are respectfully submitted to you for your approval

HISTORY OF ODD FELLOWSHIP

At the last session of the Grand Lodge a committee was appointed to contribute a chapter to the history of Odd Fellowship now being prepared by our venerable and beloved brother J T Ridgely Grand Cor and Recording Secretary under the auspices of the Grand Lodge of the United States Bro T M Gatch the chairman of that committee reports that the services of Past Grand Master Barnum have been secured and that he has consented to furnish an authentic account of the origin and early history of our order in Oregon and the adjoining Territories No part of the appropriation of $100 made at the last session for that purpose has as yet been used

APPEALS.

No appeals from the decisions of any of the district deputies have been taken to the Grand Master and so far as I am informed there is only one appeal to be settled by this Grand Lodge. All controversies and questions have been happily settled without any appeal to higher authority

PENDING CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

You will be called upon at the present session to consider some very important amendments to the constitution of the Grand Lodge which were proposed at the last session The first of these contemplates a radical change in the election of your grand officers by constituting each subordinate lodge a separate polling place where each Past Grand of such lodge may exercise at a particular time his right of suffrage for such candidates as have been duly nominated the returns to be canvassed and the result declared by the Grand Master and his assistants prior to each session of the Grand Lodge The particular merit claimed for this amendment seems to be the fact that every Past Grand no matter how remote his residence will have an opportunity to exercise his inherent right to express his choice in the election for grand officers whereas under the present system the choice is confined to representatives in actual attendance and such Past Grands as reside in the immediate locality where the Grand Lodge holds its session. It is also claimed that the amendment if adopted will give more time and better opportunity to canvass the fitness and qualifications of the several candidates as well as expedite the business of the regular session Several other arguments for and against the proposed amendment may be reasonably urged

The second proposed amendment of great importance is the creation of an intermediate tribunal to be called the District Grand Committee, composed of all the Past Grands in each district and having as its presiding officers the D D G M This committee is to have a limited supervisory control over all the lodges in the district and is to exercise an inferior or appellate jurisdiction and certain other powers fully set forth in the amendments. My experience during the past year enables me to state, that any measure calculated to lessen the labor and responsibility of the Grand Master ought to meet with favorable consideration by this Grand Lodge if it can be adopted without a radical departure from ancient landmarks and without substituting a cumbersome, expensive and inconvenient machinery to perform functions now devolving upon the Grand Master or his deputies

Several other constitutional amendments of minor importance are pending and will be brought to your particular notice in due time

Our constitution is the code of fundamental and organic law which gives power and vitality to the various inferior systems of laws, rules and regulations of grand and subordinate lodges, and restrains and limits the sphere to which they extend. No amendment should therefore be adopted unless the necessity is pressing and immediate and the remedy appropriate, certain and adequate. The spirit of change and innovation is always rife in this progressive age and too often ill advised measures are hastily adopted without that due deliberation which the importance of the subject requires Hence I invoke at your hands a careful and close scrutiny of these amendments and their probable result if adopted and such action as the welfare of the jurisdiction may seem to require

THE LIQUOR QUESTION

The following resolution was adopted by this Grand Lodge at its last session

Resolved By this Grand Lodge, that we discountenance the use and sale of all intoxicating drinks by members of the I. O. O. F in this jurisdiction."

The adoption of this resolution has given rise to considerable discussion and controversy in various parts of the jurisdiction as to its true construction and the extent of its operative force I regret to state also that by reason thereof a factious spirit has manifested itself in one or two places engendering some hostile and bitter feeling It became my official duty to give a construction to this resolution and I held in substance that the same did not amount to an absolute prohibition of the use and sale of intoxicating drinks by members of the order The Grand Lodge of the United States has decided that it is contrary to the spirit and policy of our institution to pass any law on the subject referred to creating a new test of membership in the order The same authority has also decided, that lodges cannot abridge the liberty of the citizen, nor dictate to him what he shall eat and drink. All good Odd Fellows as such despise the abuse of intoxicating drinks and in their war against vice they look upon drunkenness as incompatible with every principle of the order. But neither will the laws for the principles of Odd Fellowship descend to the restriction or regulation of the beverage of its members While temperance is a cardinal principle of the order, and must be observed, no attempt can be made to enforce total abstinence, a principle never intended by the framers to be grafted on our order (see White's Digest p 371) This being the paramount law, the resolution of this Grand Lodge so far as it has any force can only be considered as a protest against the sale and use of intoxicating drinks and an admonition to the membership. Applying these principles to the cases submitted to me for adjudication and arising under said resolution I decided as follows

1st A man of otherwise good moral character but who is a dealer in liquors is not for that reason alone debarred from membership

2d. No lodge can reprimand fine, suspend or expel a member otherwise in good standing for being a dealer in liquors.

3d. A member of the order has the lawful right to deal in liquors or use the same as a beverage in such a manner as not to transgress the laws of the State or violate the well known principles of the order as laid down in the ritual.

In making these decisions I have not considered the questions in their ethical phase, but in a purely legal aspect and I respectfully ask you to approve the same. Upon the whole it may be regretted that the resolution was passed at all for want of its effectiveness and I may be allowed to express the hope that such action will be taken by you in the premises as will settle for ever the meanings scope and extent of this resolution and for ever set at rest all controversy concerning it.

THE INCORPORATION OF LODGES.

Many subordinate lodges in this jurisdiction have from time to time adopted and filed under the laws of the State articles of incorporation whereby they became corporations and in their corporate capacity do now own and hold real and personal property of every kind and description. A resolution of the Grand Lodge of the United States passed in 1866 (Journal 3991, 4012), provides all act of incorporation obtained by subordinate lodges must be submitted to the State Grand Lodge for approval before the same can be accepted and acted upon by such subordinates and it shall be the duty of the Grand Lodge to see that such articles of incorporation contain no provision inconsistent with the laws of the order and that the rights of property of both grand and subordinate lodges are as fully protected as the legislative provisions of the State will permit. This provision seems to have been entirely disregarded both by the Grand Lodge and all of its subordinates in this jurisdiction. A vast amount of property consisting of real estate, covered by costly structures, cemeteries &c, as well as moneys lodge fixtures stocks and other investments aggregating to the value of many thousand dollars has been accumulated and is now held in trust in this jurisdiction for the benevolent objects of our order, and it becomes highly important to so guard this trust as to secure its proper application avoid all possible litigation prevent an improper diversion as well as to secure for this Grand Lodge its reversionary right to all the property of lodges whose charters are surrendered or taken away I therefore recommend the appointment of a committee of brothers learned in the law, to draft a blank form for articles of incorporation in conformity to the general incorporation law of the State the same to be used by subordinate lodges in this jurisdiction and also the passage of a resolution authorizing the standing committee to approve the same during the recess of the Grand Lodge and requiring the submission of all such articles adopted to the Grand Lodge or the standing committee, before they are filed as required by law

DIGEST

At the last session of the Grand Lodge and by its authority I appointed a special committee consisting of Bros J N Dolph R W Grand Warden J W Whalley P G Rep and J M Bacon R W Grand Secretary for the purpose of preparing during the recess, a digest of local legislation in force in this jurisdiction On the 20th day of April 1875 I received and accepted the resignation of Bro J W Whalley P G Rep as a member of said committee and filled the vacancy thereby created by the appointment of Bro F O McCown a P G of Oregon Lodge No 3 Since that time the members of the committee have been diligently engaged in performing the task assigned to them which however, is not sufficiently completed to be reported at the present session The labor imposed upon this committee is very arduous and difficult to accomplish The legislation proposed to be embodied in the Digest consists of resolutions answers to questions reports of committees and other enactments which are scattered over the nineteen volumes constituting the journals of Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Oregon A proper execution of this work requires the committee to classify and arrange the various subjects, under appropriate heads and titles, to eliminate the points and substance from the various reports of committees and answers to bring together and incorporate the various amendments and modifications into the original acts and to reject all repealed inoperative and obsolete enactments and decisions When properly completed this Digest will be of great utility and benefit to the order in this jurisdiction It will present to the lodges and members all local legislation in compact form readily enabling all to ascertain a disputed point It will secure a better compliance with the laws and uniformity throughout the jurisdiction It will avoid many frivolous controversies and appeals and will materially lessen the labor of grand officers and save time and expense in decreasing the business of the Grand Lodge I therefore recommend

1 The continuance of the committee with the injunction to proceed with all convenient speed

2 The immediate publication under existing regulations of the Digest when submitted to and approved by the standing committee of elective grand officers to be published with the Constitution of Grand and Subordinate Lodges and such public ceremonies and other matters as is now permitted to be published by the laws of the order and determined by said standing committee

3 The first expense of publication to be paid by the Grand Lodge

4 The number of copies of the Digest to be printed and the price of each copy to be fixed by said standing Committee.

5 A resolution that each subordinate lodge in this jurisdiction shall purchase at least two copies

If the financial condition of the Grand Lodge will permit I would also recommend a reasonable compensation to the members of the digest committee for the laborious task imposed upon them which requires legal skill and learning as well as patient exertion

CORRESPONDENCE.

The very voluminous correspondence of this office together with a detailed statement of all my acts and doings as Grand Master is herewith submitted to be referred to and examined by the proper committee

REJECTIONS.

I recommend a law making it an offense to criticize and improperly comment on the action and motives of a brother who chooses in good faith, to exercise his prerogative of blackballing a candidate for membership Nearly all of the unfriendly feeling that has ever existed in lodges is attributable to this habit A brother casting a black ball ought to be held amenable when actuated by malice or improper motives, by putting him on trial instanter, but no such irritable criticisms or impugning of motives ought to be allowed

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The O S N Co O & C R R Co O C R R Co N P R R Co and perhaps other lines of transportation have generously extended a reduction of fares for officers and members of this Grand Lodge To all these companies suitable acknowledgments of their liberality ought to be made.

CONCLUSION

I cannot close my report without expressing my gratitude to Deputy Grand Master Gatch who ably officiated in my place during my temporary absence of three months and to the various District Deputy Grand Masters, for the aid which they have so efficiently rendered to enable me to discharge the responsible duties of my office I also feel deeply indebted to the very prompt and efficient Grand Secretary, Bro J M Bacon, who was ever ready to assist me with his counsel and advice which was rendered doubly valuable by his many years of experience and arduous labor in the cause of Odd Fellowship

I surrender into your hands the authority of my office with a great sense of relief from the responsibilities which it involves, and also with the deepest gratitude for the trust and honor conferred upon me and the warm and fraternal support given to me by all Odd Fellows here and abroad. During the past year personal trials and difficulties have fallen to my lot and I cheerfully bear testimony that the great heart of the Brotherhood in this jurisdiction nobly exemplified in their conduct towards me the principles of faith, friendship, charity and brotherly love I trust that harmony and zeal may characterize your deliberations, and that the result of your labors may redound to your credit and the honor of our Order

THE COAL SUPPLY

The supply of cheap fuel is the great want of the San Francisco manufacturers The Nanaimo coal beds on Vancouver's Island have the precedence in time and value, and convenience to market The company now furnish at the ships about 00 tons per day from the old bed which is three miles from the harbor, and 1 200 feet deep They have found a new large vein half a mile from the bay, at a depth of 170 feet, of equally choice coal They propose to put 500 tons per day into the shutes when this vein is fairly opened This coal is contracted to the shipper at $5 25 delivered in the shute Its price in San Francisco is $13 25 It ranks very high for steamships and manufacturing, and engines The margin of profit is of course, very large to the contractor and shipper It will bear a strong competition and still keep a leading place in the market

The Bellingham Bay mine produces 100 tons per day of rather solid coal, yet highly charged with sulphur Its market rate in San Francisco is $8 per ton The shaft descends between 800 and 900 feet, and extends 2,000 feet under the bay The present vein will last about four years, but another vein lies near which, perhaps, will be opened sooner

The Skagit mine is opened only 20 feet simply for testing its value It cokes well, yet has some trace of sulphur The vein opened is three feet thick, with a dip of 60° to 70° The casings are sandstone The top coal crumbles easily The bottom coal, a foot thick, is solid It makes a hot flame, but burns out quietly It is about a mile from the river, and when the "jam" is removed steamboats can go to the coal shute The signs of good coal in that locality are rather encouraging

The old Seattle or Washington mine furnishes—as stated last week—200 tons per day of good steam and domestic coal With better transportation they can furnish 400 tons per day It sells for $11 per ton in San Francisco The Renton coal mine, opened near the Black river, turns out tons of pretty good steam and domestic coal, but with more careful sorting the reputation of this coal will improve The Talbot mine is just opened near the Renton, and its tests prove good for steam and for domestic use The Clymer, or New Seattle mine is just opened and tested, near the Talbot, with similar results

The Puyallup coal-beds, 22 and 28 miles from Tacoma, prove very extensive, appearing numerous over two townships This coal is free from sulphur trace, cokes well, gives abundant gas, proves equal to Cumberland for the blacksmith's forge, and superior for steel welding Its vein casings are light fire-proof sandstone, giving signs of belonging to the older and better coal measures Veins of anthracite have been discovered in the same region Marble has also been found, as Mr Gale informed the writer a few weeks ago Indications of iron-beds are but a few miles away A narrow-gauge railroad could with easy grade, be made to Tacoma, and transport 1,000 tons per day The coal veins are in the hills above and self-draining, so that the supply can be as large as the market The quality of the coals of this locality is equal to the Nanaimo, and it promises to be superior for blast purposes

The Tenino and Skookum Chuck coals on the line of the North Pacific Railroad, are rather lighter and more sulphurous than those of Seattle, yet with careful sorting they will furnish a large supply fit for steam and domestic use The same coal veins extend along the foothills of the Cascades in Oregon They have been found about twelve miles east of Aurora, and in the Calapooia Mountains, and at Coos Bay Doubtless the coal supply in quantity and quality on our Northwest coast will equal all the demands for centuries to come.

THE BROWNSVILLE WOOLEN MILLS

Some facts in connection with the woolen mills at Brownsville, Linn county, are of interest in connection with the subject of home manufactures, which has been discussed somewhat at length through these columns lately Some years ago this factory, becoming involved in litigation, was closed down, and so remained some four or five years About two years ago three mechanics—D Dalgleish, F F Croft and D Kay—without any capital of their own to begin with, proposed to start up the mill under a lease from the owners, provided means were furnished them to set it going The citizens responded, and the mill was soon at work The result was that the people who furnished the capital got back their investment, and the factory has been running with but slight intermissions ever since

Lately, a company was incorporated under the name of the Brownsville Woolen Mills Company, which purchased the old establishment, and will continue it under the management of the same mechanics This mill has two sets of machinery and a capacity of working up about one hundred thousand pounds of wool per year Its goods, embracing cassimeres, tweeds flannels, etc, and blankets, are now used extensively in the region of country round about, besides finding a market in other parts of the State They are made expressly for Oregon wear, and none are exported They are strong heavy goods, but handsome and tasty

This mill employs nothing but white labor, and succeeds well, showing that such a thing is practicable The proprietors say they desire to benefit the country as well as themselves and are guided by that principle in getting operatives

It is a fact conclusively proving the correctness of the propositions heretofore advanced respecting the per cent of gain that would accrue from manufactures through the increase of the value of real property The value of real estate in Brownsville has advanced more than fifty per cent since the mill has been set in operation again The advance is wholly unaccountable for by any circumstance or combination of events except the revival of operations in the factory

The present officers of the company are J M Moyer President O P Coshow Treasurer Hugh Dinwiddie, Secretary Directors—J M Moyer Wm Cochran F F Croft and D Dalgleish They are all fully alive to the importance of the enterprise and to the fact that such a factory carefully managed can not fail to be a good investment This establishment alone will save a large amount of money to the State, which but for it would be sent abroad to buy goods which could be made as well and as cheaply at home

The Chicago Tribune aptly remarks that the want of currency in the Southern States arises not from the insufficiency of the amount of currency in circulation in the United States but from the lack of anything in possession of the Southern people which they can exchange for currency If they had cotton or rice or tobacco or sugar to sell they would feel no want of the circulating medium for these articles are in demand and will command money in the south as well as in the north It is an old but a truthful saying there is none so far from market as he who has nothing to sell Certainly there is none so destitute of facilities for obtaining money as he who produces nothing to exchange for money

The insurance on property destroyed by the recent conflagration at Oshkosh Wisconsin, amounted to $750 475 Salvage foots up no more than $50 000, so that after all is realized that can be the insurance companies will have to bear a loss of $700 000

The address of Grand Master H G Struve which we publish this morning is replete with matters of interest to all Odd Fellows It does credit to its author and to the order

WRIT OF SPECIAL ELECTION

To the Sheriffs of the several counties within the State of Oregon

Whereas At a general election held on the 1st day of June A D 1874 the Hon George A LaDow was duly elected representative of the State of Oregon in the Forty fourth Congress of the United States and

Whereas, Since the said election said office has become vacant by the death of said incumbent, and

Whereas, By provision of the Constitution of the United States and the laws of this State, it has become the duty of the Governor thereof to issue his writ of election to fill such vacancy

Now therefore I, L F Grover, Governor of the State of Oregon do hereby command you and each of you to notify the several judges of election within and for your several counties to hold a special election of representative in Congress to fill the vacancy aforesaid on Monday the 25th day of October 1875 and that you cause all proper notices to be given thereof according to law

Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Oregon at Salem this 17th day of May A D 1875 L F GROVER

Attest S F CHADWICK,
Secretary of State of Oregon

HEALTH NOTES

[From Dr W W Hall's Maxims]

The failure to wear woolen flannel next the skin is the most frequent cause of rheumatism

The average duration of the life of men after retiring from active business is less than three years

A sixpenny sandwich, eaten leisurely in the cars is better for you than a dollar dinner bolted at a station

I set it down as a clearly established fact, that a glass or more of cold water drank habitually at meals, or soon after is a pernicious practice even to the most healthy

Every intelligent and humane parent will arrange that the family room and the chambers shall be the most commodious lightest and brightest apartments in his dwelling

Eat your meals with an unanxious, unannoyed and cheerful heart and consider him her or it your worst enemy that interferes in this direction for passion anxiety alarm, mortification instantly arrest digestion

When the stomach is about to be distressed by an improper meal nature sometimes excites the most earnest longings for an acid of some kind and such persons should always have some good vinegar on hand although tart fruit or grapes are a great deal better

Persons in health do not need any pepper in their food but to those of weak and languid stomachs it is manifold more beneficial to use cayenne pepper at meals than any form of wine, brandy or beer that can be named because it stimulates without the reaction of sleepiness or debility

Do not enter a sick chamber on an empty stomach, nor remain as a watcher or nurse until you feel almost exhausted nor sit between the patient and the fire nor in the direction of a current of air from the patient towards yourself nor eat or drink anything after being in a sick room until you have rinsed your mouth thoroughly

After any kind of exercise do not stand a moment at a street corner for anybody or anything nor at an open door or window When you have been exercising in any way whatever winter or summer go home at once or to some sheltered place and however warm the room may seem to be do not at once pull off your hat and cloak but wait a while, some five minutes or more and lay aside one at a time thus acting, a cold is impossible

Persons who walk a great deal during the day should on coming home for the night, remove their shoes and stockings hold the feet to fire until perfectly dry put on dry pair and wear slippers for the remainder of the evening Boots and gaiters keep the feet damp cold and unclean by preventing the escape of that insensible perspiration which is always escaping from a healthy foot and condensing it hence the old fashioned low shoe is best for health

To get well of any chronic disease of a serious character and to remain cured a man must be led to see the nature of his own case the needs, and requirements of his own constitution and must have that force of character which compels compliance with those requisitions As long as the world stands the ignoramus and the animal will die before his time Intelligent self-denial is the price of health and long life the world over it never will be otherwise

In high bodily health brain work like body work gives an appetite and if that appetite is only indulged regularly and moderately any student may live to a good old age with an hour or two of judicious exercise out of doors every day and in the end save years of efficient labor by it So far from complete inaction being perfect enjoyment there are few greater sufferings than that which the total absence of occupation generally induces

SURPRISE PARTY—Several leading members of St. David s Church, East Portland met at the residence of Mrs Brown of that city in honor of the 18th birthday of her youngest daughter They brought with them several valuable presents which were presented in a very neat and appropriate speech The gathering was unexpected and of course Miss Brown was taken entirely aback and when the presents were brought forward she was unable for a time to return thanks but her looks expressed more than words could have conveyed the happiness given

SNAG—A few days since while the steamer Sea Fig was descending the Cowlitz river she ran on to a shoal place, and knocked a small hole in the hull Fortunately the boat could not sink and the hole was closed up without difficulty After the slight damage was repaired, the water was bailed out and the steamer proceeded on her way without further detention

GROVE MEETING—There will be a grand spiritual grove meeting held at Eberhard s Landing on the Wallamet river two miles above Champoeg on the 18th 19th and 20th of June 1875 As this is the first grove meeting of the season no pains will be spared to make it profitable and pleasant to all who may attend A cordial invitation is given to all

AMUSEMENTS.

On Saturday evening Mr John C Blake the actor will take a benefit at Oro Fino The tragedy "Othello" will be presented, with Mr Charles J Graham, a colored gentleman, who is well known here in the title role. This alone will be sufficient to attract a large audience

A fair audience was present last evening at New Market Theater The Follies of a Night was rendered in a very acceptable manner by Mrs. Phelps supported by her efficient troupe. Capt. McDonald appeared with his band of trained Indians at the conclusion of the play and entertained the audience with his wonderful exhibition of the art of handling arms

Mr Frank Gilder and troupe arrived yesterday from a very successful concert tour in the valley They will leave next week for a tour on the Sound and may possibly visit Victoria Mr Gilder, before he leaves, will give two "popular concerts" at Masonic Hall a matinee next Saturday afternoon and a concert at night. The price of admission to each performance will be only fifty cents and no extra charge for reserved seats which may be secured at Gray's music store

This evening the public are promised a musical, literary and dramatic treat at Masonic Hall. An entertainment will be given at the above place under the auspices of the ladies connected with St. Stephen s chapel The programme consists of pleasing and instructive exercises Elsewhere we publish the programme in full, from an inspection of which it will be observed that the following persons have volunteered for the occasion Miss Lamberson, Miss Cardinell, Miss Yarndley Miss Adair, Mrs Corbett, Messrs Charles Lancaster, J H Hatch, Geo I DeProns, G A Dobson, Mrs. Bausher the Amphion Club and members of the Portland Amateur Orchestra The entertainment will conclude with the presentation of a scene from Hamlet (in costume) in which Mr Robert Fulford will personate the "Melancholy Dane," Mrs Fulford the Queen, and R C White the Ghost

MILITARY NOTES.

The following orders have just been issued

Major Joseph H Eaton chief paymaster will pay the troops, to include the muster of April 30 1875, at Port Townsend, W T On completion of this duty Major Eaton will rejoin his station

Private William C. Springer, company B, 21st Infantry, is detailed for duty at these headquarters under the provisions of General Orders No 92, Headquarters of the Army Adjutant General s Office Nov 4 1868 in excess of the general service men authorized

A general court-martial will convene at the military post of Sitka, Alaska Territory, Monday, June 7, 1875, at 10 o clock A M, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the trial of 1st Lieut. Edward P Newkirk 4th Artillery and such other persons as may be properly brought before it The following officers are detailed for the court Major William A Rucker pay department, Captain Edwin V Sumner 1st Cavalry, Captain Marcus P Miller, 4th Artillery, Captain Stephen G Whipple 1st Cavalry, Captain John L Johnston 21st Infantry 1st Lieut Melville C Wilkinson 3d Infantry aid de camp Captain Edward Field 4th Artillery, Judge Advocate of the court

THE OARSMAN S CODE

As the intercollegiate rowing contests to take place at Saratoga July 1 are exciting some attention we present below a copy of the rules of the regatta as amended at the recent meeting of the regatta congress

1 Any boat not at its post at the time specified shall be liable to be disqualified by the umpire

2 All races shall be started in the following manner The starter shall ask the question Are you ready and receiving no reply, after waiting at least three seconds shall give the signal to start

3 If the umpire considers the start false he shall at once recall the crews to their stations and any boat refusing to start again shall be disqualified

4 A start shall be considered false if during the first ten strokes, any of the competing boats shall be disabled by the breaking of an oar or any other accident

5 Each boat shall keep its own water throughout the race and any boat departing from its own water shall be disqualified

6 A boat s own water is its buoyed course from the station assigned to it at starting to the finish and the umpire shall be sole judge of a boat s deviation from its own water during the race

7 No fouling whatever shall be allowed the boat committing the foul shall be disqualified

8 It shall be considered a foul when after the race has commenced any competitor by his own oar boat or person comes into contact with the oar boat or person of another competitor unless in the opinion of the umpire such contact is so slight as not to influence the race

9 A claim of foul must be made to the umpire by the competitor himself previous to his getting out of the boat

10 The umpire when appealed to but not before shall decide all questions as to foul

11 In the event of a foul the umpire shall have the power (A) To place the boats except the boat committing the foul which is disqualified in the order in which they come in, provided that the foul boat comes in first or that the first boat had a sufficient lead at the time of the foul to warrant the race being assigned to it. (B) If the fouled boat does not come in first or if unable to decide which boat is in error, to order such of the leading boats to row over again as in his opinion are entitled to another competition

12 Every boat shall abide by its accidents

13 In the event of a dead heat taking place the same crews shall contend again, or the crew or crews refusing shall be adjudged to have lost the race

14 No boat shall be allowed to accompany a competitor for the purpose of directing his course or affording him other assistance Any boat receiving such direction or assistance shall be disqualified at the discretion of the umpire

15 The jurisdiction of the umpire extends over the race and all matches connected with it from the time the race is specified to start until its final termination and his decision in all cases shall be final and without appeal

16 Any competitor refusing to abide by the decision or to follow the directions of the umpire shall be disqualified

17 Boats shall be started by their sterns and shall have completed their course when the bows reach the finish

18 The umpire, if he thinks proper, may reserve his decision provided that in every case such decision be given on the day of the race

19 If in conformity with the rules 11, B or 13 a second race is ordered it shall not be called on the day when the first was rowed

The Voice of the Great West.

The voice of the great West accords to Hostetter s Stomach Bitters the foremost place among specifics for malarial disease and this opinion is echoed wherever upon this continent the Bitters have been introduced as a remedy for intermittent and remittent fevers Those maladies being the peculiar scourge of vast regions of country in the Western and South-western States, it is not surprising that the Bitters should be the great medicinal staple of such localities or that their inhabitants should regard this article as indispensable in the household The experience of the Western emigrant proves that it is the very best means of acclimating him to unaccustomed air or water and old residents of fever and ague regions say that it is the only thing that protects them with certainty against the visitation of miasmatic disease An equally high estimate is placed upon its virtues as a remedy for stomach bowel and bilious complaints and as a general tonic and corrective

ZACK CHANDLER ON THE WAR PATH

HE PUTS ON WAR PAINT AND MARCHES ON NEWSPAPER ROW

Zack Chandler has put on his war paint and feathers, taken his little hatchet in hand and started to find one "Dion Pott" in Washington City. The Chicago Times correspondent gives this racy account of the ex Senator's appearance in Newspaper Row

Mr Chandler was evidently laboring under some great emotion. From his manner it was only too evident that he was not out for the purpose of making a friendly call. A moment after he entered the Times office and addressed the Times correspondent as follows

"I am looking for a man by the name of Dion Pott"

"Perhaps you mean Don Piatt?"

"That's his name—Don Pott—that is the man I want"

Mr Chandler was here referred to the Directory, and with the aid of a New York correspondent who was in the office he obtained the address required

Several correspondents came into the office at this moment, when Mr Chandler began an impromptu speech upon the subject of his wrongs. Reaching down to the extremity of the huge strap, he brought out a large sized seven shooter. Said he as he gesticulated emphatically with the hand that held the revolver, "Don Pott is my man—I am after him"

There was a rapid movement of the correspondents out of the office at the appearance of the revolver. Chandler threatened no one at present, but a revolver in the hands of an excited man, who held it as carelessly as Chandler did, is enjoyed better at a distance. Chandler addressed the Times' correspondent exclusively in the latter part of the conversation as the other inmates of the office had business that called them elsewhere. Said Mr Chandler, in one of his most excited paragraphs "It was all right what you boys said about me when I was a Senator, but now I am a private citizen, I do not intend to stand anything you say about me. I am after Don Pott this morning. I don't know the man. I have never seen him, but I intend to make a friendly call upon him to day"

"What do you intend to do?"

"I am going to kill off four or five of you fellows. I tried to bring one of you fellows to justice, and I spent over $10,000 trying to convict him"

"You refer to Buel?"

"Yes, that is my man. I am going to try another way. I am going to kill off four or five of you"

Here the revolver was brandished, and Mr Chandler toyed with the hammer in a very embarrassing way

"But," added he, "I am a fair man. I came in here to give you warning. I advise you to strap on your seven shooters, but you can never pull one so quick as I, so you had better look out. I am going to put an end to this abuse of me"

At this Mr Chandler was permitted to retire peaceably. At the door he was met by a short man with red whiskers, who walked briskly up to Chandler

"How are you?" said he

"I don't know you," said Chandler

"My name is Maynard—I am from Detroit. The papers call me your private Secretary"

Then Maynard tried to get possession of the revolver, but Chandler resisted him. After some parley, Maynard succeeded in getting the revolver away from Chandler, and walked home

A BAD SPELL AMONG THE COFFINS

[From the Detroit Free Press]

The other evening old Mr. and Mrs. Coffin who live on Brush street, sat in their cosy back parlor, he reading his paper and she knitting, and the family cat stretched out under the stove and sighed and felt sorry for cats not so well fixed. It was a happy contented household and there was love in his heart as Mr Coffin put down his newspaper and remarked

"I see that the whole country is becoming excited about spelling schools"

"Well, it's good to know how to spell," remarked the wife. "I didn't have the chance some girls had, but I pride myself that I can spell almost any word that comes along"

"I'll see about that," he laughed "come now, spell buggy"

"Humph! that's nothing—b-u-g-g-y bug gy," she replied

"Missed the first time—ha! ha!" he roared slapping his leg

"Not much—that was right."

"It was eh? Well, I'd like to see anybody get two g's in buggy, I would"

"But it is spelled with two g's and any school boy will tell you so," she persisted

"Well, I know a durn sight better than that!" he exclaimed, striking the table with his fist

"I don't care what you know!" she squeaked. "I know that there is two g's in buggy"

"Do you mean to tell me that I've forgotten how to spell?" he asked

"It looks that way"

"It does, eh? Well, I want you and all your relations to understand that I know more about spelling than the whole caboodle of you strung on a wire!"

"And I want you to understand Jonathan Coffin, that you are an ignorant old blockhead when you don't put two g's in the word buggy—yes you are!"

"Don't talk that way to me!" he warned

"And don't shake your fist at me!" she replied.

"Who's a shaking his fist"

"You were"

"That's a lie—an infernal lie"

"Don't call me a liar you old buzzard! I've put up with your meanness for forty years past, but don't call me a liar, and don't lay a hand on me"

"Do you want a divorce!" he shouted springing up. "you can go now this minute!"

"Don't spit in my face—don't you dare do it or I'll make a dead man of you!" she warned

"I haven't spit in your freckled old visage yet, but I may if you provoke me further"

"Who's got a freckled face you old turkey buzzard?"

That was a little too much. He made a motion as if he would strike and she seized him by the neck tie. Then he reached out and grabbed her right ear and tried to lift her off her feet, but she twisted up on the neck tie until his tongue ran out.

"Let go of me, you old fiend!" she screamed

"Git down on yer knees and beg my pardon you old wild cat!" he replied

They surged and swayed and struggled and the peaceful cat was struck by the overturning table and had her back broken while the clock fell down and the pictures danced around. The woman finally shut her husband's supply of air off and flopped him and as she bumped his head up and down on the floor and scattered his gray hairs she shouted,

"You want to get up another spelling school with me, don't you!"

He was seen limping around the yard yesterday a stocking pinned around his throat, and she had court plaster on her nose and one finger tied up. He wore the look of a martyr while she had the bearing of a victor and from this time out "buggy" will be spelled with two g's in that house

There is a piano now at the Wheeling female college which belonged at one time to George Washington. It was made for him in London and is a decidedly unique affair. There is a German silver plate on it with the inscription "To my daughter"

There is no variation in the local money market from the condition noticed yesterday. [illegible] the banks continue [illegible] money along [illegible] but a pretty fair [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] deposits [illegible] and discounts are being extended so as to include a more general class of paper. Rates are [illegible] [illegible] favorable [illegible] for the best paper of eligible real estate security. Money [illegible] plentiful in general circulation but lending institutions are generally well supplied

The financial condition in New York and other large cities is one of abundance so that shrewd financiers look for a further advance in the price of United States bonds and other first class securities, that of course will stimulate more rapid retirement of bank circulation

During the month of April there was deposited at the United States assay office in New York $[illegible] 000 in bullion of which $[illegible] was gold and the remainder gold and silver mixed including $[illegible] 000 from Nevada and $250 000 from Colorado. Most of the amount was payable in bars though $[illegible] 000 was sent to the Philadelphia mint to be converted into coin. The operations of the United States Treasurer at New York for April embraced $[illegible] 048 000 receipts and $[illegible] 818 800 disbursements. Included in the receipts was $9 [illegible] 600 from duties on foreign imports. The disbursements embraced $[illegible] 610 000 interest on the public debt. The balance in the office on the 1st instant was $105 783 700 which is $3 700 000 larger than on the 1st of April. The payment of the May interest which has been in progress during the past week will make a considerable reduction in the present large surplus

Wheat Crops and Market

That Oregon will have an abundant wheat crop being now almost an assured fact it is well to examine the various reports that reach us touching the present and prospective values of the cereal as affected by the condition of the plant in other countries with which our grain must compete when it shall be thrown on the market. As to the crop in the United States it is carefully estimated that the area planted with wheat for the crop of 1875 is about 1 500 000 acres more than that for the crop of 1874. The condition of the crop is below an average. In most parts of the South the prospects are favorable and the crop secure against all contingencies except frost. In California a large breadth has been seeded and the prospects are favorable for the early sown wheat but there are some apprehensions in regard to the late sown. The States in the valleys of the Ohio and the Missouri rivers report inferior condition on account of winter killing. Those sections in which drought prevented early seeding have suffered most. In the Middle States though brown in appearance the roots are sound and prospects favorable except in patches that have been covered during the winter by ice. In two thirds of the counties in New York the winter wheat crop is in medium condition. In New Jersey it is prospectively under average. In most of Pennsylvania it is above an average condition. Virginia is below an average. North Carolina a medium condition. Illinois is considerably below an average. In California the acreage shows a large increase but the condition is much below an average in many sections of the State and the total yield will probably fall short by an important quantity

In England on the 1st of May the weather was fine for the growing plant and prospects indicated a good average yield so that diminished values in the grain markets were resulting

In France at the end of the second week in April the weather was fine temperature rather high with an absence of rain which caused small supplies at the departmental markets in consequence of the apprehension of farmers

Rotterdam mail advices of the 12th instant report a milder temperature during the first two weeks in April with occasional rain falls which had been favorable for the development of the growth of the cereal crops

In Germany advices under date of April 10th states the weather had been mild with abundant moisture and the growing crops had a generally satisfactory appearance

Hungarian advices under date of April 10 1875 give favorable reports of the growing crops which are almost exceptionally satisfactory. The weather fine. Spring in the fullest acceptation of the word had come and vegetation was bursting vigorously forth nourished by a beautiful rain fall. The report of damage to the Colza crop turns out to be unfounded apprehensions

The visible supply of wheat in the United States on the 24th ult. was 10 632 016 bushels against 10 406 8[illegible]6 bushels April 2[illegible] 1874. The receipts at lake ports for the week ending 24th ult were 781 000 bushels against 5[illegible] 6 988 the previous week and 1 093 186 for the corresponding week in 1874 and the shipments from thence for the week were [illegible]7 918 bushels against 573 568 the previous week and 1 35[illegible] 803 bushels for the corresponding week in 1874. The deliveries at New York for the week were 286 080 bushels and at seaboard ports 605 481 bushels against 518 0[illegible]0 bushels the previous week and [illegible]5 8[illegible]1 bushels the corresponding week in 1874.

There were on the 15th of April 1875 according to Dornbusch's London Corn Trade List in transit for the United Kingdom 1 3[illegible]1 780 quarters of wheat, against 1 077 590 quarters April 15 1874. equal in flour to 91 050 quarters of wheat against none in 1874.

J F Beirbohm's London Corn Trade List of April 17 1875 makes the amount of grain in transit for the United Kingdom exclusive of steamer shipments from American Atlantic ports and sail and steamer shipments from the Baltic equal to 1 468 980 quarters of wheat

The Grocery Trade

Locally this branch of trade may be said to have enjoyed a fair degree of prosperity during the entire spring season and some leading houses report sales as averaging considerably above last season. Margins have been low as a rule but the aggregate result of the spring's business foots up equally as well as was expected when the season opened. Staple groceries have maintained a firm tone and most of them have shown an advancing tendency. In coffees this is attributable to the [illegible] cause of supply and demand and contingencies affecting the crop. In sugars there has been a gradual advance amounting in all to 1@2 cents per pound owing to the not generally understood fact that all imported sugars pay 25 per cent higher duty than last year this duty which was taken off by an act of Congress in 18[illegible]0 or 18[illegible] having been restored at the session which closed last year. Imports of salt since the beginning of the year have been about [illegible] 000 sacks and sales have been regular with the smallest fluctuation in prices. Receipts here have been about in equal amounts from San Francisco and foreign countries.

We think coffees are not likely to appreciate further but sugars may as the treaty with the Hawaiian Kingdom will not take effect for several months yet and the increased tariff on our importations from that country must be borne until it does

Provisions have at no time brought good prices and dealers have been reasonably successful in placing the surplus of the country. Grain and flour only of all domestic products have ruled unusually low. The average quality of the hog product is an improvement over that of former years. We have learned recently of a purchase of 20 000 lbs by Mr Gallick of this city which was put up by Logus & Albright at Oregon City and is pronounced a very superior article by good judges. A large lot has also just been received from Jackson county by Messrs Corbitt & Macleay which has been said well trimmed and thoroughly cured and from the samples found will rank well in this market

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives Sarsaparilla Dock Stillingia and Mandrake with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood purges out the lurking humors in the system that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorder. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ or organs whose action they derange and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone the disorders they produce disappear such as Ulcerations of the Liver Stomach Kidneys Lungs Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin St. Anthony's Fire Rose or Erysipelas Pimples Pustules Blotches Boils Tumors Tetter and Salt Rheum Scald Head Ring-worm Ulcers and Sores Rheumatism Neuralgia Pain in the Bones Side and Head Female Weakness Sterility Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease Dropsy Dyspepsia Emaciation and General Debility.
